

Calabash Cove Resort and Spa

<http://calabashcove.com/>

Calabash Cove, St. Lucia's luxurious boutique resort retreat, is located in the idyllic paradise of one of the world's most beautiful tropical islands. St. Lucia is part of the tranquil and picturesque Eastern Caribbean island chain and is known as the "Helen of the West Indies" for its unspoiled natural beauty."

A Perfect Location

Tucked away on gently sloping, tropical beachfront on the northwest coast of the island, Calabash Cove is one of just a select few five-star luxury boutique hotels on St. Lucia.

Nestled in the sheltered bay of Bonaire Estate, Calabash Cove is perched on a hillside sloping gently towards the Caribbean Sea, where cool ocean breezes provide a wonderful respite and the turquoise sea is offset by the vibrant green of tropical vegetation and views of Walcott Island. A private beach sheltered by nearby coral reef provides the perfect place to rest, reflect and dream.

The resort has been designed with great care to complement and exist in harmony with the beauty of its natural surroundings. The main buildings of the hotel, such as the lobby, restaurant, bar, sanctuary, and infinity pool with waterfall lie on a slope, with the Villas amidst lush vegetation perfectly situated to view nightly sunsets. The natural elements of earth, wind, light and water are represented in the exotic wood, stone and natural materials used in the composition of the buildings. The peaceful and tranquil gardens, under the care of one of the finest landscape architects in the Caribbean, have been created to capture and optimize the natural splendor of the area and are filled with vibrant, fragrant flowers set amidst tree groves.

Accommodations

The accommodation at Calabash Cove Resort & Spa is divided into three equally luxurious categories, each offering unparalleled views across the Caribbean Sea, of the capital Castries to the South, and nearby Martinique to the North, from the luxury of your balcony. These accommodations include Balinese-style Waters Edge Cottages, all with private pools, as well as a number of magnificent Manor House Suites—all with dramatic ocean and sunset views and some with private, poolside patios. All rooms have King-size beds, Jacuzzis, showers, mini- bars, large flat screen TVs, high speed internet access, A/C, telephone, and private balconies or patios with teak tables and chairs. Most rooms have also a daybed, and the cottages include a hammock, an outdoor rain shower and a private pool for the ultimate luxury.
